

Thomas Jefferson to Andrew Ellicott, July 3, 1792, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital. Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Jefferson to Ellicot

Philadelphia July 3. 1792.

Dear Sir

I inclose a letter³⁸ for Dr. Stewart, open to you, because I think, besides taking care that he receives it, you will have the goodness to make the same inquiries which I press on him, and that this will double my chance of finding out a level road which I am justly sure exists, and would be an immense convenience to me. be so kind as to stick a wafer in the Dr's letter. I am with great esteem Dr. Sir

38 Unable to locate this letter. . . S.K.P.

Your most obedt. humble servt

Th: Jefferson

MR. ANDREW ELLICOT.